

Best In The East Pattaya Mail

Established in 1993

Pattaya's First English Language Newspaper

SERVING THE EASTERN SEABOARD OF THAILAND

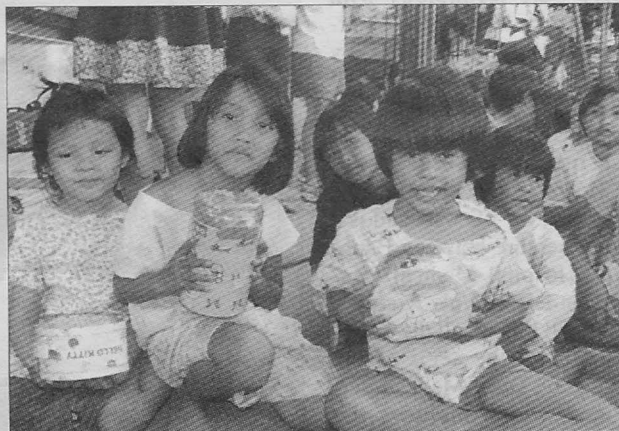

PATTAYA MAIL

FRIDAY JANUARY 18, 2008 21

Foundation brings New Year happiness to underprivileged kids

Children from Baan Jing Jai are excited about receiving New Years gifts from the Take Care Kids Foundation.

The pure smiles of children after receiving New Years gifts makes it all worthwhile.

Sawitree Namwiwatsuk

The Take Care Kids Foundation from Italy led by Juergen Lusuardi and Raffaella Gazzoni on December 29 presented more than 80 gifts of toys and sweets to the children at Baan Jing Jai for a New Year treat.

This was the second venue at which the Foundation made a New Year gifts presentation, having been first to the Mercy Center. A third venue was also scheduled, with the Foundation due to present New Year gifts to children at the Camillian Social Center in Rayong.

Juergen, representing the Foundation, said the gifts were presented as part of their policy of bringing happiness to underprivileged children worldwide.

Happiness was certainly evident at Baan Jing Jai, as the gifts, which totaled 15,000 baht in value were handed out to the excited children.

Juergen said that after the New Year holiday the Take Care Kids Foundation would work with the Pattaya City Welfare Office to repair houses for underprivileged people in the community behind Big C in North Pattaya, and on Soi Photisamphan.

Representatives from the Take Care Kids Foundation pose for a picture with the children at Baan Jing Jai.

(Back row, from left) Arunrasamee Boonkerd, social worker in Pattaya City, Juergen Lusuardi, representative from the Take Care Kids Foundation, and Raffaella Gazzoni, also representing the Take Care Kids Foundation) provide happiness to children at Baan Jing Jai on the occasion of New Years.